Transfer Applicants

TRU values transfer students from other accredited graduate degree programs. Applicants are required to submit their record of earned university/college credits along with the other documentation and fees. TRU allows a transfer of up to  $\frac{3}{4}$  of all program credits as long as the credits have been earned at internationally accredited universities or colleges. Credit transfer fees are the same as course enrollment fees.

Credit Evaluation

Students who have made application to TRU will automatically receive an evaluation of their transfer credits with their acceptance letter. Billing for transfer credits will take place as soon as students agree to transfer of credits. All university/college transcripts must be submitted in official university/college signed and sealed envelopes for official credit transfer evaluation.
